Law Firm Compton Jones Dresher Continues Hiring

BIRMINGHAM, AL November 9, 2020—Commercial law firm Compton Jones Dresher welcomes Lisa H. Dorough as counsel with the firm. Dorough practices primarily in commercial real estate, especially with respect to healthcare related properties.

Compton Jones Dresher partner Dave Dresher said, “Lisa is an experienced attorney, familiar to many in the Birmingham business and legal communities. She is especially known for her ability to navigate complex real estate transactions efficiently and cooperatively, which she has done many times. Her skill and experience will be extremely helpful as we support and advise our bank and real estate development clients.”

Dorough is a 1995 graduate of Auburn University and received her Juris Doctor degree from Samford University’s Cumberland School of Law in 1998. She most recently practiced with the Dominick Feld Hyde firm in Birmingham.

Compton Jones Dresher was founded in 2020 on the belief that win-win outcomes in the real estate, financial services and banking industries are possible where counsel understands the business and how business is done. The partners of Compton Jones Dresher have nearly 100 years of combined experience in commercial transactions. Paul Compton most recently served as General Counsel of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in Washington, D.C., and before that helped pioneer bank investments in tax credit supported real estate projects. Haskins Jones is widely recognized as a leader in commercial real estate transactions in Alabama. Dave Dresher was most recently a partner at Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP where he had practiced for more than 35 years. He serves as outside counsel to the Mortgage Bankers Association of Alabama, among other engagements. The firm presently has a total of eight attorneys and is based in Birmingham, Alabama.
